(The Kingdom is) Big Enough for You

Actors Ted & Lee bring to life the apostle Paul, jailed and struggling with a letter he's writing to the Colossians. Then the twist: Paul gets a cellmate, an embezzler named Leon. Chatty and abrasive, Leon unwittingly helps Paul sharpen his letter to its true point: love binds everything together. This drama powerfully illustrates the importance of accepting our differences. Also includes music video by Lost and Found. Short study guides included. 17 min. Available in DVD or VHS.

Bridge to Forgiveness

This DVD for youth delves into the vital process of what it means to forgive and be forgiven. Youth will meet Jacob and Esau played by Ted and Lee, hear an original song by Ken Medema, and empathize with candid interviews with teens. Available in DVD or VHS.

Creation Chronicles

Ted & Lee's captured live in their hometown! This dazzling tour of the Old Testament features Ted & Lee as 17 different characters in 14 stories. Chronicles explores God's persistent love for humankind starting (literally) at The Beginning and culminating in Advent. Full of great variety, humor, and thought-provoking content. 90 minutes.

SCENES: The Creation / Cain & Abel / The Flood / The Tower of Babel / Abraham / Desert Song / The Golden Calf / Jericho / Samuel / Solomon / Jeremiah / WXPR (Prophet Radio) / Jonah / Advent

Don't Sit on Your Stuff

Peter and Andrew figure out that they shouldn't "sit on their stuff" as they enact a familiar parable. This leads us to a discussion of what to do with our own "stuff:" our time, money and talents. Musicians Joel and Aimée Pakan of Tangled Blue also bring fresh twists of interpretation to two stories of giving and grace: the story of Mary washing Jesus' feet with expensive perfume and the parable of the widow who gave all of her money at the temple. Help youth discuss and begin to live out Christian stewardship principles with this entertaining video. Available in DVD or VHS.

Fish-Eyes Video

and "An Insider's View of Jesus" Study Guide Book

This excellent resource, written by Todd Temple, uses clips from "Fish-Eyes" as the catalyst for discussions with youth about discipleship. Each lesson includes easy ways for students to get involved (i.e. to introduce the lesson on Peter & Andrew's call, he has student's who fish tell their saddest "fish tale.") Lessons also include "source notes" (cultural and geographical details), relevant scripture passages, and lots of questions for conversation. Video and book are sold separately or together.

Thermostat:

How Can We Turn Toward Peace in Time of Fear?

A DVD for youth on war, peace and Christian conscience. "Thermostat" includes a wide variety of resources: Bible studies, role plays, stories, images, poetry, video clips, rap and drama. A 100- page study guide organizes the three hours of video clips and activities into 33 different study units. The units — which can be used separately — include the themes of peacemaking, imagination, allegiance, security, terrorism, camouflage and nonviolence. "Thermostat" encourages intergenerational conversation and learning. Also available in Spanish. Find at www.mccstore.org.

Vocation! Vocation! Vocation!

This fast-moving DVD will help youth begin talking about job decisions. You'll hear people young and old talk about their jobs and their dreams. Leaders will be empowered to help youth ask the questions that will help them begin the life-long process of searching for the vocation to which God is calling them. Ted & Lee bring the Bible alive with characters we've never heard of, in ways that touch us where we are. Also features Mike Yaconelli talking about faith and finding our calling, about passion and risk-taking. Study guide included.
